

America's Evolving Views on Energy: 2024 IEEE PES Survey Insights

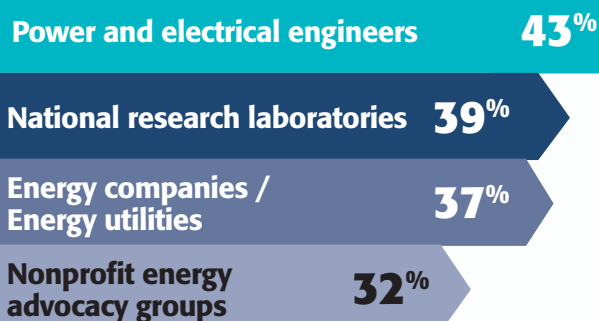

TOP ISSUES AND CONCERNS

Energy affordability and climate change are top concerns/priorities

FINDING SOLUTIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Power and electrical engineers are the most trusted to come up with solutions to address climate change

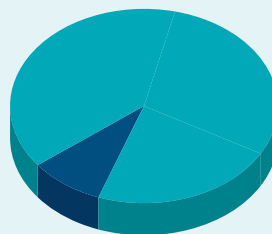

3 in 4

feel concerned about the threat posed by climate change

68% feel optimistic in the ability to use technology to address climate change on a global level

87%

believe power and electrical engineers play an important role in addressing climate change

54% believe engineers should focus on researching and developing new forms of renewables, energy storage systems, and clean technology

Source: Park Street Strategies Survey, commissioned by IEEE PES, November 2024.